Recreational Angling Bigger than Rugby and Cricket

At the initiative of the South African Deep Sea Angling Association ("SADSAA"), an in-depth study of the contribution of recreational angling to the economy of South Africa was conducted by a team of experts of the University of Stellenbosch under the leadership of Prof. Marius Leibold, PhD.

The final document was handed to SADSAA President, Mr. Marius Vermaak by Prof. Leibold today (July 11th 2008) at an occasion at the Stellenbosch Business School, Cape Town. Read more...

Scenes from the Nomads golf day

Scenes from the National Boat Show

Nomads was offered a free stand and in true Nomads style, an interesting presentation was put forward which was manned by volunteers. Visitors showed a keen interest in the techniques of rigging baits, having their fishing questions answered as well as enquiring how Nomads operates. Thanks to all who gave of their time and supported the Nomads stand.
