TO ALL SGDSAA CLUBS

You will no doubt have heard that the Billfish Classic will be held from 1st to 5th March, which seems to be a popular decision giving us a bit of a break after the December holidays. Columbia Clothing have confirmed that they will again support this event so its all systems go.

I have had many enquiries already for Entry forms and can now confirm that entries are now open, the Entry fee will remain at R1000 per angler; Entry Forms are attached and will also be available on the SADSAA website shortly.

We look forward to seeing you again at Richards Bay in March next year.

The Nomads Tide - A Monthly Brief July 2010

You Know you are nuts about fishing when

When your wife asks if you are planning on going fishing this coming weekend, you laugh and say, "Good one bokkie."

You reason that a 90 percent chance of severe thunderstorms actually means that there is a strong 10% percent chance of having really excellent fishing weather.

Your wife has to drag you out of bed at 8 a.m. to go to work, but you can wake up at 4:30 a.m. on weekends without an alarm clock to go fishing.

Someone says they have had a tragedy in the family and you think they broke their Diawa Exeller or HMG 6. Your tackle is worth more than your wife's jewellery. You have a permanent sunglass tan from wearing Polaroid's.

Your cat hangs out with you because he likes the smell. You tell your fishing buddy, "Hold on, I've almost got him in" when he is having a heart attack.

You think back over the past year and realize that you have kissed a fish more times than you have kissed your wife kids or girl friend.

You have dogs and kids named Okuma, Saltiga, Cardinal, Siglon, IGFA and Spro .

You have considered becoming a teacher so you have more holiday time to go fishing

You have more fishing rods and reels than power tools.

Your idea for the honeymoon was a week long fishing trip to the Wild coast with 10 of your best fishing buddies

You can tie a Bimini twist when drunk and blindfolded, but your Windsor tie knot looks like a puff adder that ate a Dassie.

When you die and you're at the Pearly Gates, St. Peter asks if you want to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, and you ask, "How's the fishing?"

Your fishing reels go in for a service more than you ever go to the dentist eye specialist or doctors for a preventive check up.

All your clothing is branded with rapala Halco or sponsors logos from previous fishing competitions along with an occasional pair of fishing shots and faded jeans

You have a legal length measurement tape on your bait box

You are the one sitting in the back of church dressed in your fishing gear.

You've eaten so many fish that have mercury in them you can tell the temperature without a thermometer. Your wife says "It's either me or fishing" and your reply is a prolonged humming sound.

You have read the last sentence and said, "Doesn't everybody?"

And lastly, fishing has been a family tradition for years and you are planning on passing it on to the next generation.
