THE 13TH ANNUAL MAPELANE BILLFISH INVITATIONAL CHALLENGE 2013

The time has once again come to "SET THE BALL IN MOTION" and call for entries for the 13th Mapelane Billfish Challenge. The dates for 2013's challenge will be from Monday 25th March - Friday 29th March 2013.

You will notice that the end of the competition coincides with the Easter Weekend. We have unfortunately had no choice but to do this as we have taken the tides and moon phases into account. On the positive side we hope all will stay for the Easter Social on the Saturday night and spend the Easter Weekend at our beloved Mapelane.

Due to a limit of 25 boats for the event, it is pertinent that you enter as soon as possible to avoid exclusion. The first 25 paid up teams will qualify for entry in this challenge.

Sport Fishing South Africa

An interesting article that appears in Marlin Mag (7 Jan 2013).

While long known as a premier destination to view the Big Five of African game animals (elephant, leopard, lion, rhino and Cape buffalo), South Africa is also home to some surprisingly good big-game fishing, with anglers pursuing blue, black and striped marlin along its coastline.
